

HPS II stormwater plans with proposed NPDES Outlet B3 just above substation.

Google Earth images with mine discharge point added. Discharged water would be through the drainage system that flows through Brooker just north of the water tower. Flow then continues to the Santa Fe River.